

Chief Medical Officer Privileges Delineation of Clinical Privileges

Criteria for granting privileges: Concurrent membership in an appropriate Medical Staff Department.

And

Employment and/or contractual arrangement with facility or system to serve in the capacity of CMO or equivalent position while also serving on the Utilization Review Committee.

Applicants will be requested to provide documentation of practice and current clinical competence as defined on the attached competency grid. Applicants have the burden of producing information deemed adequate by the hospital for a proper evaluation of current clinical competence, and other qualifications and for resolving any doubts.

Core Privilege Description: Participate in various administrative functions of the medical staff, including but not limited to, serving on various committees, providing peer review, case review, and reviewing patient assessments and care management plans.

Evaluate, diagnose, provide consultation, and write orders for treatment, transfers or discharges for patients of any age, who are admitted to Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare facilities within the scope of their responsibilities, and not as part of a private practice, unless otherwise credentialed to do so. These activities would include (but are not limited to) writing orders to comply with protocols, standards of care, and CMS requirements for a specific patient or patient population. Additionally, privileges would extend to writing orders that ensure a patient is in the correct level of care. As a member of the Utilization Review Committee, these privileges would include all functions of "Second Level Physician Review," including writing orders (admission/inpatient status orders) to ensure the patient is in the correct level of care – after thorough review and becoming knowledgeable of the patient's course of care/treatment and with the agreement of the admitting physician.
